Dear Sir/Madam,

My name is Liu Fang, a high school graduated student. I would like to work as a volunteer for Chinese culture project in Britain.

Chinese culture project in Britain is a very important way for Chinese to convey Chinese culture and introduce national treasure to foreign people.

I am a girl of 18. With the great fluency in English and the burning passion for Chinese culture, I suppose I am qualified to be a volunteer for the project. Besides, I have a good communicative competence and I am considered to be an outgoing, reliable and helpful person. I promise I will do my best to fulfill the task required by the project.

Now I formally apply for the job and I sincerely hope I can be accepted.

Yours faithfully,
Liu Fang

Text 1 M: I can't believe they don't have our tickets here at the box office! I called in advance to remind them ! What a waste of time and money !

W: Honey, be patient. The man said they have them in the back office. He just has to go and get them.

Text 2 M: Welcome to our restaurant, madam. My name is Benjamin. What would you like to drink ?

W: I'll have a sugar-free soda, please. And can you bring the bill right away ? I'll need to leave quickly for a business meeting.

Text 3 M: It's been a long time since I had a vacation. I can't wait to go on the fishing trip tomorrow !

W: Just don't forget to bring a net this time. Remember what happened last year ?

Text 4 W: OK, we are all done here. Everything looks fantastic. We will mail the test results to the home address we have on file for you within one week.

- M: Thank goodness ! I thought I was dying !
- Text 5 M: Oh, no ! I just realized that we are almost out of gas.
W: Well, we are going to have to find a station and fill up. There should be one close to where we are.
M: Yeah, I guess so. But we are really low. Hopefully, we'll find one soon.
- Text 6 W: Where do you want to go for the summer holiday ?
M: I'm not sure. But I would like to go to South Korea or maybe Japan.
W: I've been to South Korea before. So, maybe Japan is a better idea for this year.
M: When did you go to South Korea?
W: I went during high school with my class. Remember? That's why I missed Chelsea's birthday party that year.
M: Oh Yeah! And you couldn't stop talking about kimchi for weeks.
W: OK,OK...So, shall we go to Japan , then? I will look for tickets online. Hopefully, they won't be too expensive.
M: Great, I can't wait !
- Text 7 M: Becky, can I speak to you for a moment in my office?

W: Thank you, sir. I'm just trying to do my best for the company.
M: No need to be modest. What you did was brilliant. I'm promoting you !
W: Promoting me? Wow, I never expected that. What about the Johnson project?
M: The project you're in charge of ? We can get someone else on that. I want you to work that magic of yours.
W: I will continue to do my best, sir.
M: I expect nothing less from someone as talented as you, Becky.
- Text 8 W: Can you believe last night's game ?
M: It was almost too good to be true . No one expected our team to win by that many points !
W: No one expected our team to win at all !
M: I'm a little upset , I couldn't travel to the game with Dave and Billy. They really wanted me to go with them.
W: Why didn't you go ?
M: I had to study for three different final exams. No time for any football games at all this week !
W: Well, maybe you can go next year. I hope we can get back to the championship next season.
M: I hope so, too ! I'm graduating this spring. I should be able to attend a whole bunch of games next year.
W: I hope we can go together.
M: But you will be in school then. Won't you have too much homework to do ?

W: Didn't I tell you ? I'm going to take summer classes and try to graduate early !

M: I had no idea. Good luck with that. I heard that summer school classes are more difficult, though.

Text 9 M: Hey, Mom. What's up ?

W: Hi, Chris. Your father and I are coming home tomorrow. Can you pick us up at the train station in the afternoon ?

M: What time will you arrive ?

W: We land around noon. So, we should be at the train station by 1:30 p.m.

M: Oh, but I have to pick up Sandy from the vet at 1:30 p.m. I won't be able to get to the station until 2:00 p.m. at the earliest.

W: What's wrong with Sandy ?

M: Nothing too serious. The vet said she might have caught a cold or something.

W: Oh, I'm sure she will be OK. She's a strong girl.

M: Thanks. Now, what should we do about tomorrow ?

W: Let me think... Your dad and I can just eat lunch at the airport. That way, no one will feel rushed to be anywhere. We'll plan to see you around 2:00 p.m. at the station. OK ?

M: Works for me.

W: Oh, hang on a second. Where are we going to sit ? If you are bringing Sandy in the car, we won't have room to sit in the back seat.

M: That's true. Also, what about your luggage ?

W: Son, can't you put off picking up Sandy until later in the afternoon ? That would make everything a whole lot easier .

M: I will call the vet and see if that's possible, I'll call you right back.

W: OK.

Text 10

Well, folks, it's time for the weekly weather report. We have a lot of different kinds of weather coming at us over the next several days. On Monday and Tuesday, the weather will be just as pleasant as it has been lately. Warm days, cooler nights, with a light wind from the ocean coming across the hills: beautiful late summer weather ---so get outside and enjoy it ! By Tuesday evening , though, the weather will turn. We'll be getting the first of the autumn rains.

The storm system will come down from the north, from the direction of Fremont. Our area will be hit hardest with rain---we should receive up to an inch of rain overnight ! With the storm will come much cooler weather. You'd better pack your summer clothes away, because you won't need them for a long time ! By Friday morning , all the wet weather will have passed. But the temperatures will drop even further into the weekend. And since Gilroy is not very close to the sea, we can expect the weather to remain cool for quite some time. But if we get lucky, we'll have hot weather once more before winter. Late September and early October generally bring a couple of weeks that feel like summer.
